Creative Director: Makayli Anochie

Designer: Avery Ominsky

No recording—meeting took place during class in a breakout room

- Topic: the rock band Evanescence
- Concept: a casual, fan browsing experience
- Color scheme: (mostly) cool colors—blues, greens, black, white
- Font: something light, but not necessarily serif if that doesn't read well
- Lots of images!
- Music previews? In page about albums/discography
- More about showing the band than informing things about them
