- The first one (mockup A) better captures the essence of the band
    - I'm not sure if the lavender in the second one really feels like evanescence
    - Maybe some blues/teals instead of purples
- I like the incorporation of the iPod – more moments like that?
- More color or texture incorporated?
- I like the side nav bar in the second one, but the first one probably works better
- Ombre background? To feel more in line with their band imagery
- Sharp instead of round
- 3 pages → home, music, about the band
    - About the band: each member and a little description of what they do/who they are
    - Music: list of albums and tours, maybe a few of their most popular songs mentioned
        - Albums: Fallen, The Open Door, Evanescence, Synthesis, The Bitter Truth, Sanctuary
        - Classic songs of note: Bring Me to Life, My Immortal, Going Under, Lithium, Everybody's Fool, Call Me When You're Sober
